THE SIEGE OF PARIS.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—It is stated that the Prussians have not yet been able to plant a single battery near enough to disturb any part of Paris.

The morale of Prussia's soldiery is excellent. They are drilling constantly.

The heavier artillery for Fort Mont Valerien has literally swept Courbevoie and other parts of the circuit of six kilometres. The Prussian works have been destroyed. Active batteries on the Prussian side have been established. Most Valerien have been silenced. The Chateau de Madrid is also destroyed. The Chateau of Mendon, and Mont Rotual, Villejuif and Chatillon have both been recovered by the French. On the north, the Prussians have both drives fort au Bar as Fraet and Dedemch. The entire peninsula around Gravillion has been from the Prussians. The Prussians have the north of the river, and Pont de Neuilly. The Prussians have also taken Chatou. The Prussians have also taken Chatou. The Prussians have also taken Chatou

Mating Insurance Law—A Queer Contempt Case.

Supreme Court.

WHAT IS AN ADMINISTRATOR DO BONDS NOW? Manuel Cassidy of Chicago, by Isaac L. Kellogg, administrator de bonis non of the estate of W. H. Bissell, late Governor of Illinois. This cause came up on motion of appellee to dismiss the appeal herein, and was argued at length by counsel for the respective parties. The court took the matter under advisement, and will probably render a decision to-day.

Base Ball.

THE YEAR AND ITS RECORD-MAKER.

Cincinnati, Oct. 15.—The game to-day, though the less scientific of the contests, was of far greater interest to the spectators than any of the previous ones. The weather was delightful, and there was a large attendance, which was increased by the presence of a number of ladies, who, in carriages, occupied the space in front of the grand stand. Harry Wright's playing was

From the Gazette.

We were beaten! We thought we had it, but we were not. We had the game in our hands, and we let it slip. We were defeated by the Cincinnati Red Stockings, and the Championship Tournament is at an end. Harry Wright's playing
